PART B: DECLARATION REGARDING BEST EFFORT AND INTENTIONAL MISREPRESENTATION

As set out in the IPC Classification Code, the International Standard for Intentional Misrepresentation and the World ParaVolley Classification Rules, Intentional Misrepresentation presents a major threat to the integrity of Classification and Para sport. It is a very serious offence because it constitutes an attempt to: (i) mislead an International Federation (and/or its representatives) in relation to any aspect of Classification; and/or (ii) achieve an unfair advantage that undermines fair and meaningful competition.

In order to uphold these values of integrity and fair and meaningful competition, and in order for the Classification Panel to have a full and accurate picture of an Athlete's true capabilities, I recognise that it is of fundamental importance that Athletes give their best efforts at all times during the Evaluation Session and that all Participants cooperate fully, honestly, and in good faith with this process.

In this context I make the following formal declarations:

Declaration for all Participants

- I promise not to commit Intentional Misrepresentation or to be intentionally complicit in respect of Intentional Misrepresentation or attempted Intentional Misrepresentation by another Participant, as defined in the World ParaVolley Classification Rules.
- In addition, I make the declaration specific to my role below.

Athlete declaration

- I promise to give my best efforts at all times during the Evaluation Session.

WORLD PARAVOLLEY ATHLETE EVALUATION AGREEMENT

- I understand that I may be subject to sanctions if I am found to have committed Intentional Misrepresentation, including (but not limited to) disqualification of my results and a period of ineligibility.
- I further acknowledge that I have an obligation to (among other things) report directly to World ParaVolley if anyone has encouraged or pressured me to commit Intentional Misrepresentation.

National Representative(s) (including any interpreter) declaration

- I recognise and accept that I meet the definition of a Participant for the purposes of World ParaVolley Classification Rules and am bound by those rules, including those regarding Intentional Misrepresentation.
- I understand that I may be subject to sanctions if I am found to have committed Intentional Misrepresentation, including (but not limited to) a period of ineligibility.
- I further acknowledge that I have an obligation to (among other things) report directly to World ParaVolley anything which might indicate the planning or commission of Intentional Misrepresentation by any Participant (including the athlete named below).
