World ParaVolley Classification Privacy Notice

As an IPC Member, World ParaVolley follows the IPC Classification Code (the Code). This means we need to collect, and process the following personal information (PI) about Athletes & Athlete Support Persons, National Federation representatives, and/or interpreters to conduct classification-related activities. WPV is the controller of your Personal Information (PI) in this context, and this Classification Privacy Notice explains the types of PI we collect about you, the purposes for which we Process it, the parties with whom we share it, rights you may have in relation to your PI, and other relevant information.

Information that identifies or is identifiable to you, like your name, contact information, date of birth, gender, sport nationality, role/title, and the sports you participate in.

Medical information, required for the purpose of classification to confirm the presence of an Underlying Health Condition leading to an Eligible Impairment to proceed to a classification evaluation. This includes medical information on the application for Classification Evaluation and results of medical investigations and interventions to support the presence of an Underlying health Condition, medications, medical device(s) or implant(s) used, and any adaptive or protective equipment used.

Classification Evaluation & Eligibility Status Information, including WPV PVSAS ID number, tests and measures used for Eligible Impairment assessments, MIC Assessments, Sport Class Assessments, photography, audio and/or video recordings taking during classification, correspondence prior to, during, or following the classification process (to raise questions, share information, or other purposes relevant to classification), any other PI you voluntarily provide us or disclose to us upon request, and to administer Classification and Eligibility for World ParaVolley Competitions.

We process the PI described above for a range of purposes, including:

Processing Purpose	Categories of Personal Information
To enable Athletes to register for the Classification process and provide us relevant information about them (and any Athlete Support Persons – e.g. NF representatives, and/or interpreters) prior to the commencement of the Classification process.	Name(s) and contact information. Demographic information. Sport related information Medical information about Athletes Correspondence Other Personal Information
To communicate with Athletes prior to, during, and following completion of the classification process.	Name(s) and contact information. Other Personal Information
To complete the Classification process and consider Athletes for potential participation in Para sport, and issue a Classification decision.	Name(s) and contact information. Demographic information. Sport related information Medical information about Athletes
To protect the rights, interests, and safety of WPV, Athletes, and others involved in the Classification process.	Photography, audio and/or video recordings Correspondence Other Personal Information
To comply with applicable law and/or requests from law enforcement, a competent court, and other governmental authorities, or a relevant Para sport body, and to establish, exercise and/or defend against .

In addition to complying with privacy and data protection laws of the Netherlands (General Data Protection Regulation "GDPR" under the Dutch data protection authority) we respect a set of standards when we handle your personal information. One relevant standard is described in the IPC Handbook under the International Standard for Classification Data Protection. It includes protecting your personal information, deleting it when we no longer need it, being transparent, and allowing you to exercise rights like the right to access your personal information.

To the extent applicable Data Protection Laws require a legal basis to Process PI, we will rely on an appropriate lawful basis in consideration of the PI Processed and relevant purpose(s), including:

- To comply with applicable laws, such as any applicable laws relevant to the integrity of Para sport or compulsory legal process(es);
- To perform a contract to which you are party, or to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract;
- To fulfill our legitimate interests to operate and maintain the Classification process in order to ensure fair and meaningful Para sport competition, and/or the legitimate interests of third parties, such as other parties and bodies involved in the Classification process; and

- To serve the important public interests tied to the Classification process, such as protecting Athlete health and ensuring fair and meaningful Para sport competition.
- To the extent consent is required to lawfully process your Personal Information, we will request your consent in accordance with applicable Data Protection Laws. If you consent to the Processing of your Personal Information, you may have the right under applicable Data Protection Laws to withdraw such consent at any time, but this will not affect the lawfulness of our Processing of the relevant Personal Information prior to such withdrawal. Please note that withdrawing consent could have certain consequences for Athletes, including preventing participation in the Classification process and Para sport events.

We also may need to share your personal information with the following individuals and organizations:

- Individuals authorized by you, like an authorized representative, coach, or doctor;
- Other Classification Organizations such as the IPC, other International Federations, or Major Event Organizers, provided that such sharing of your information reasonably relates to Classification Processing activities under the Classification Code, e.g. Competitions
- Third parties (UHC Assessors, classifiers and WPV personnel) that are involved in classification or assist with classification-related activities such as resolving Protests & Appeals, completing UHC Assessments, and conducting integrity investigations.
- Service providers and contractors we work with to manage and administer the Classification Process
- Law enforcement and other governmental authorities as necessary to comply with applicable law.

Please note that your name, gender, year of birth, nationality, Sport Class, Sport Class Status, any designations, any 're-evaluation' status attached to a designation, any tracking codes, and any current designation of Intentional Misrepresentation may be published by WPV on a Classification Master List in accordance with the WPV Classification Rules.

International Transfers of Personal Information

You may participate in a Para sport event or Classification process outside of the jurisdiction where you reside, or we may need to share PI with parties as described above who may be located in other jurisdictions. To the extent applicable Data Protection Laws impose restrictions on international transfers of Personal Information, we will implement measures to ensure compliance with such restrictions, such as by transferring on the basis of an adequacny decision, implementing standard contractual provisions with the recipient(s) of such PI (which you may have the right to receive a copy of upon request), relying on an applicable derogation, or otherwise in accordance with applicable Data Protection Laws. You may contact us with any questions you have about any international transfers of your PI.

Security of Personal Information

We have adopted measures, including administrative, technical, physical and contractual measures, to protect PI against theft, damage, loss and unauthorised access, use, modification or disclosure.

Retention of Personal Information

We will retain your PI for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose(s) for which it was collected, and thereafter as necessary to comply with applicable laws and in accordance with retention policies and standards applicable to us as an International Federation.

Minors

WPV permits the participation of Minors (a natural person who has not reached the age of 18 years) who are not yet of the age of majority under applicable law. Where we Process the PI of Minors, we do so in accordance with the applicable Data Protection Laws, including by obtaining consent from the parent or guardian of the Minor where required.

Personal Information Rights

Under applicable Data Protection Laws and the International Standard for Classification Data Protection, and subject to applicable exceptions or exemptions, you may have certain rights in relation to your PI, such as:

- The right to request access to your PI;
- The right to request correction or deletion of your PI;
- The right to restrict or object to the Processing of your PI;
- The right to data portability (where applicable); and
- Any other rights recognised by applicable Data Protection Laws.

If you wish to submit a request in relation to your PI, contact us where indicated below and we will handle your request in accordance with applicable Data Protection Laws. If you are not satisfied with how we have addressed your request or have concerns about our Processing of your PI, you may have the right to lodge a complaint with a competent data protection authority.

Please review the World ParaVolley Privacy Notice for more information.
